

Security Team Member

GirlGuiding New Zealand

Role Overview

The Security Team member is a member of the Jamboree Security Team and is supported by and reports to the Security Team Lead.

Purpose of the role

To assist the Security Team Lead to ensure that people and property at the Jamboree site are kept secure at all times during the event.

Term

From the date of appointment to the conclusion of the post-event debrief.

Key Tasks and Responsibilities

1. General

- Is a member of the Security Team and contributes to the successful implementation of the security arrangements for the event.
- Work closely with the Security Team Lead and other Security Team members to deliver the event successfully.
- Work closely with the Security Team to ensure that the event meets the safety and risk mitigation requirements of GirlGuiding New Zealand and New Zealand legislation.

2. Position Specific

- Be an active member of the Security Team and operate in accordance with all Jamboree protocols and requirements as well as the instructions of the Security Team Lead.
- Ensure that participants engagement with the Security Team is a positive experience.
- Gain a sound knowledge of the layout of the Jamboree site.
- Communicate in an appropriate manner with other team members and participants.
- Be familiar with the risk management plan for the site and fully understand their role within it.
- Be familiar with the procedures in the event of an emergency.
- Assist with the daily security of the Jamboree site completing shifts as assigned by the Security Team Lead.
- This role is performed within GirlGuiding NZ policies, guidelines and relevant statutory requirements such as health and safety.

Security Team Member

Direct Reports

- None

Time Commitment

Attendance at Jamboree is required.

Location of Position

No fixed location. The role requires a willingness to travel within New Zealand to attend the event.

Person specification

1. Personal attributes

- Passion for GirlGuiding and its values
- A strong desire to ensure positive outcomes for girls and young women
- The integrity to respect confidentiality and act with discretion
- Ability to relate well to girls and adults
- Is practical and is prepared to improvise and assist other members of the team where necessary and appropriate.
- Active and of good health and has the stamina to deliver the event